Summary

Video editor and content producer who has been editing video and photo since primary school, and working commercially for the past four years across agency, the influencer market, and my own freelance business. I work across the full production line: concept, filming, editing, motion graphics, 3D and photo editing. Strong on short form and performance creative for Meta and TikTok, and on delivering high volume without dropping quality. Currently leading the design team at a Norwegian-owned growth agency.
